MEMORANDUM

TO: Agency Heads and Human Resources Directors of All State Agencies, Departments, Institutions, and Commissions

FROM: Samuel L. Wilkins, Director

SUBJECT: State Employee Recognition Activities

DATE: March 12, 2007

National Public Service Recognition Week is May 7-11, 2007 and the Office of Human Resources is encouraging agencies to take this opportunity to recognize employee contributions to your agency as well as the State of South Carolina. Once again, Governor Sanford has issued a proclamation declaring May 9, 2007 as State Employee Recognition Day in South Carolina. Please see the emailed attachment for a copy of the proclamation. The attached proclamation is presented in PDF format. You will need the Acrobat Reader installed on your computer to be able to view and print this document from your browser. If you do not have Acrobat Reader installed, please use the following link:

To assist you in your recognition efforts, my office will also be contacting other state agencies to compile a list of discounts being offered to state employees during this week. Please contact my office if your agency is interested in offering discounts to State employees during this week. We have also attached a listing of some of the State agency recognition events that took place in 2006 to this memorandum. We hope that seeing some of the events that took place in other agencies last year will give agencies some ideas to consider while planning this year's recognition efforts. As an additional resource you may also refer to the National Association of State Personnel Executives (NASPE) website at <http://www.naspe.net/index.cfm?PageID=7>.

Good luck on your employee recognition efforts and please feel free to call my office at (803) 737-0900 if you have questions or need additional information regarding this initiative.
